- Applications for employment with the State of Arkansas, or any subdivision thereof, are accepted without regard to sex, race or color, national origin, handicap/disability, age, religion, or political affiliation. Conviction of a crime does not automatically bar any applicant from employment or other opportunities with the State of Arkansas.
- Applications, once filed, may be subject to disclosure as a public record under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.
- Applications filed do not create a contract of employment with the State of Arkansas or any of its subdivisions. If any individual is hired, employment is not for any definite period of time. Individuals hired will also be required to provide proof of eligibility to work in the United States pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
- Qualified applicants with disabilities, as defined in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, may request any needed accommodations to participate in the application process.
