Construction Updates

Distance Education and Instructional Technology
Brenda Gillogly stated that the bid to remodel AD133 for the Distance Education and Instructional Technology area was awarded to Curtis Construction of West Memphis for $71,500. The area will house an instructional media room that will be partially soundproof with an adjacent editing room (editing room will double as an office space if needed) to make good quality audio and video productions to incorporate into classrooms. The media room will also be open for other departments to use as well (Office of Development plans to use the area for filming student interviews etc., and Chris Lynch has plans to bring his students to the room to teach about sound waves). The area will also house offices for the director and the coordinator. The outer area will be used for student support/training.
Paragould Math Center
The GCITC lease agreement for the childcare facility was approved by Arkansas Building Authority which assists all state agencies in locating, negotiating and executing lease documents for various types of real property. The 20-year lease was effective June 1, 2013 for $2,500 per month plus expenses (utilities, maintenance, etc.) The Math Center bid opening for the remodeling project was held August 6, 2013. The apparent low bid was $349,800. The architect is in the process of confirming the contractor’s credentials before proceeding.

Health Science Complex
BRTC is seeking a USDA fixed rate loan for the purpose of constructing a Health Center Complex on the Pocahontas campus. An interim financing source is required for the project. A request for proposals was sent to several institutions for interim financing, the permanent financing, or both. The proposals were due by noon on August 8, 2013. Also required for the loan process is a Financial Feasibility Study which will be prepared by Hughes, Welch and Milligan in Batesville. The study will cost $19,000 with BRTC providing a portion of the information needed resulting in significant savings to the college. Dr. Jan Ziegler stated that the deadline for submission to the local office is September 1 which will then be forwarded to the federal office. September 30 is the deadline to receive the current interest rate of 3.5%.

Several meetings have been held with the architects to review their plans for the project.
