PRESIDENT’S REPORT
Dr. Eric Turner shared highlights of the year:

- Occupied the Health Science Complex since October.
- Relocation of the Fire Science and EMT programs. Respiratory Therapy has been moved to the Martin Building and both EMT and Respiratory Therapy now share quarters and have better lab space. The transition on all three of these programs has gone smoothly.
- Dr. Roger Johnson and his team led in the development of the Agricultural program and subsequent approval by ADHE. The classrooms and labs on the south end of the Martin Building and the greenhouse have been assigned to this program. This summer, those spaces will receive a minor face lift to ready the space for students in the fall. The development of the precision agricultural program will further enhance an anticipated popular academic program.
- TOPSS (Technical Opportunities and Pathways for Secondary Students) is a collaboration with K-12 and BRTC. This initiative is designed to provide students with the opportunity to enroll at Black River while simultaneously in technical programs during the student’s junior and senior year. On May 10th, Superintendents Blaxton and Rorex will accompany Dr. Turner to the board meeting of the Department of Arkansas Career Education where he will present the proposed educational and financial model.
- Under the leadership of Daniel Parker, the launch of our comprehensive planning efforts began last fall for the College. We have plans to share our efforts at the August board meeting. Subsequent to sharing the information, the College will then develop action and operational plans in order to accomplish our agreed upon goals intended to lead the institution to be responsive to the marketplace.
Fire Tower Update
The contract for the Fire Tower was awarded to Bailey Contractors of Jonesboro for $841,622. This reflects a negotiated lower price than the initial bid. The dirt work began last week and the estimated completion date is September.
