

Creative Writing in the Ozark Foothills: People, Places and Days Gone By

Taught by Cindy Robinett
BRTC Adult Education Instructor and Local Historian

Register at the Continuing Education Building on the BRTC Pocahontas campus, College Drive, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

For additional information or alternate registration: Call 870-248-4180 or visit our website at www.blackrivertech.edu/community/cce and click on Pocahontas Campus.

The first two days of this workshop will include traveling from BRTC (transportation provided) to the Rice-Upshaw House and Looney Tavern for tours and lecture as well as a presentation of examples of Folk Art by the late Melissa Ozella Miller Upshaw. On the third day, participants will have the opportunity to write about people, communities, and oral traditions or create fictional characters who might have lived in years past.
