

Cradling Literacy

Cradling Literacy is a free, twelve-session specialized course designed to help early childhood teachers understand and develop skills to support early language and literacy development in children age birth to five.

This training will demonstrate how relationships can affect brain development and how culture and reflection can bridge differences in beliefs about child rearing and child development.

This training will be held in the Continuing Education Building on the BRTC Pocahontas Campus, College Drive.

To obtain credit for this class, you are required to bring your TAPP ID number. If you do not already have a TAPP ID, you may request one at the following web address:

http://professionalregistry.astate.edu/practappl\_online/practappls.asp

To register for this class (course #59880) please access the following:

http://professionalregistry.astate.edu/train\_register/trainsearch.asp

For additional information: email zebulon.blansett@blackrivertech.edu or call BRTC Corporate & Community Education at 870-248-4180.

Corporate & Community Education

Date:

Mondays,
February 6 -
April 24

Time:

6 - 8 p.m.

Cost:

Free

Registration

Deadline:

Thursday, February 2

*Graduates will be awarded certificates
upon completion of 24 hours of training.*

