President’s Report – Dr. Martin Eggensperger
Institutional Updates
Dr. Eggensperger welcomed all those attending. He invited the Trustees to a reception for Senator John Boozman who is scheduled to visit and tour campus at 3:00/3:30 p.m. Dr. Eggensperger gave an update on campus activities and stated that things are going well. COVID guidelines and safety precautions are being adjusted with fewer and fewer cases being reported on the campuses. The budget process has been completed for this cycle and went well.

Academic Affairs – Dr. Brad Baine
Dr. Baine, Vice President of Academic Affairs, referenced his summary contained in the information packet and asked if there were any questions. Graduation plans are underway. A record number of Letters of Notification have been submitted to the Arkansas Department of Higher Education. These LONs include revisions to help students attain a Basic Certification or micro-credential. Our Ag and Dietetics departments are teaming up to host a Harvest to Home event.

Finance and Administration – Rhonda Stone, CPA
Finance and Administration Office Vice President, Rhonda Stone, C.P.A., presented financial reports contained in the board materials and offered to answer questions. Processes involved in the new budgeting formula were explained. The current audit is going well with auditors being off-site. Repairs to the Joe Martin Building are on schedule and the berm project will begin soon. Critical maintenance projects are being evaluated and prioritized.
Student Affairs – Jason Smith
Jason Smith, Vice President of Student Affairs, began with the success of the first BRTC Signing Day event. Fifteen students attended. Hopes are to continue this event. Yard signs have been created (with the help of IA) for new students to display and use for photo opportunities. Mobile admission/registration is being conducted at area high schools and are proving successful. In-person orientation is being held under the direction of Neal Harwell, Dean of Students in groups of 12 to 15 students each. Grant funding has opened an opportunity for another Career Coach. This position will serve the Hoxie and Corning high schools. Graduation plans are going well. COVID numbers continue to drop. Enrollment numbers showing increased percentages were shared on the summary report in the packet of materials. Dr. Eggensperger commended the department on their efforts with students.

Institutional Advancement – Karen Liebhaber
Karen Liebhaber, Vice President of Institutional Advancement announced that Holly Looney is back fulltime in their department and will focus on REACH, the BRTC Foundation, social media and video production. Since the adjournment of the legislature, focus is being placed on networking with various higher education liaisons and building those relationships as well as continuing conversations with legislators. IA is working on campus continuity with colors, artwork and signage. Physical Plant Director, Trent Ingram is involved in updating signage identifying rooms and offices. The Foundation hopes to hold the Annual Golf Tournament in the fall once again.

Human Resources – Julie Edington
Executive Director of Human Resources, Julie Edington and her office are continuing to work with auditors, processing payroll and various reports.

Institutional Effectiveness – Sissy Gray
Sissy Gray, Executive Director of Institutional Effectiveness gave a brief update on assessment and accreditation work that has been accomplished. One highlight was correspondence from HLC indicating that the monitoring report review had been completed. She shared a quote from the official notification commending the college on their successful efforts in complying with recommendations. The review recommended no further monitoring until BRTC’s next reaffirmation of accreditation in April 2023. This process has begun with various committees focusing on each criterion with Laddie Hunter working on the narrative. Through these successful efforts, Sissy and others have been asked to share their knowledge with other institutions facing challenges.

Paragould Operations – Priscilla Stillwell
Priscilla Stillwell, Paragould Executive Director, shared an update on recent activities on the Paragould location. She has been working closely with business and industry in Greene County as well as the Paragould Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Collins, on behalf of the board, commended the work accomplished during the difficulties presented by the pandemic.
