Introduction

Black River Technical College recognizes there are students who can be involved in various aspects of life and have many times already acquired learning of a measurable, college-level dimension beyond a traditional college classroom environment, which can be legitimately assessed and recognized as part of a degree seeking program.

This learning, frequently called prior learning, may result from employment/work experience, professional certification attainment, non-credit training, hobbies, volunteer experiences, civic activities, travel related specifically to a degree plan, military and other experiences. While there are commonly recognized avenues of assessing college-level learning at a high school level, the assessment of prior learning is primarily for students who have been out of high school and/or college for several years and who are entering or returning to college to earn an Associate's Degree or Technical Certificate.

BRTC has developed policies and materials to assist in the process of petitioning for credit through prior learning. These processes will also be reviewed and evaluated by BRTC's regional accreditor the Higher Learning Commission (HLC).

Details of subject areas that may be evaluated for credit by BRTC are contained in this manual and on our website. Should the college not yet offer credit for prior learning in a subject area of your experience, be sure to inquire.

This manual is designed to assist you in the definitions of prior learning, policies, procedures, fees, categories, and assessment methods in order to ensure you thoroughly demonstrate your learning and receive fair college credit. Your careful review and understanding of the contents of this manual will be your greatest asset.

Definitions

Advanced Placement (AP) The college may award credit to students who participate in their high school Advanced Placement (AP) program, and achieve satisfactory scores on appropriate AP examinations administered by the College Board Placement Test Program. Students who wish to obtain Advanced Placement credit must request the College Board to forward their test scores to Black River Technical College after they have been admitted.

College-level learning is deemed as learning that is equivalent to subject areas traditionally taught in colleges, commonly recognized amongst colleges, and is acquired after high school and expected for professional acceptance.

Prior learning assessment (PLA) is a process by which an individual's experience that is equivalent to college-level classwork is assessed and evaluated for purposes of granting credit, certification, or advanced standing toward further education or training.

Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is credit awarded for skills and knowledge gained outside of a traditional classroom. Many students come to BRTC with years of life, work, and military training and experience. Prior Learning Credit may save students time and money while pursuing their degree.

PLC Categories

PLC may be awarded through two categories of assessment: credit by examination, credit by Professional Licensure/Certification.

To be eligible to petition for PLC the student must be currently admitted to BRTC.

All PLC must be applied for during the students first semester at Black River Technical College.

Category I

Credit by examination includes commonly recognized national exams accepted by colleges, as well as the evaluation of some credit completed during high school. These include:

- College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
- Advanced Placement Program (AP credit)
- American Council on Education Military Program (ACE/Military)
- Credit earned through a Memorandum of Understanding or an Articulation Agreement with a public agency, high school, or other education institution.

Details of college credit offered through credit by examination can be found in Section II of this manual.

Category II

A) Credit by Professional Licensure/Certification

The college may consider a professional license or certification offered at the state or national level as evidence for prior learning.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

- Healthcare related licensures/certification
- IT certifications
- Industry licensures/certification

To be considered all licenses and certifications must be current and valid (not expired).

B) Credit by Professional Skills Exam

The college may consider professional skills learned by the student through work related or life experience as evidence for prior learning. This knowledge will be assessed through a unique examination geared toward the skills needed for the class(es) for which Prior Learning Credit is being requested.

Examples include (but are not limited to):

- Electrical Apprenticeship program
- Firefighter training/skills
- Military training that doesn't fall under category I
- Self-taught/life skills

PLC Policy

In cooperation with Arkansas Division of Higher Education (ADHE) requirements, and review and approval by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), BRTC adheres to the following general policies for awarding Prior Learning Credit:

1. Credit for prior learning can be awarded only after the assessment of prior learning experiences and only for documented learning that demonstrates achievement of all identified learning outcomes for a specific course or courses.
2. The maximum credit hours that may be satisfied through PLC will not exceed 50% of any certificate or degree.
3. Credit may only be awarded for courses applicable to the student's declared degree plan.
4. All Prior Learning Credit will be awarded during the student's last semester of enrollment (before graduation).
5. Prior Learning Credit does not count toward BRTC's required credit hour residency, nor meet eligibility requirements for financial aid or loan deferment.
6. Students who are denied credit through PLA for a specific course may not petition for credit again for that course by any other options defined under PLC.
7. A student may not receive credit twice for a course that has been awarded through PLC.

Application Procedure

Black River Technical College has set the following request procedures for Prior Learning Credit based on the type of credit being petitioned.

Category I (credit by examination)

Credit for National Exams, all scores or official transcripts must be sent directly from the institution or testing agency to the BRTC Registrar. There is no application fee for this category, however students will be charged an applicable transcription fee for credit awarded under this category.

Category II A (credit by Professional Licensure/Certification)

Students seeking credit through certifications and Licenses must:

1. Complete the Prior Learning Assessment Application Form (found in the student handbook or on the college's website).
2. Take the request form to the business office and pay the PLC Application Fee.

3. Submit application, payment receipt and copies of license/certification to the appropriate program's Dean or Director for review.
4. Following formal review, the appropriate Dean or Director will notify the student of award or denial.
5. The Office of the Registrar will award credit as recommended by the Dean or Director.

Category II B (credit by professional skills exam)

Students seeking credit through professional skills exam must:

1. Complete the Prior Learning Assessment Application Form (found in the student handbook or on the college's website).
2. Take the completed form to the appropriate program's Dean or Director to determine exam availability.
3. Once the appropriate exam has been determined and scheduled, students will take the form to the business office to pay the PLC Application and exam(s) fees.
4. Bring completed form along with the receipt of payment to the exam site.
5. Appropriate faculty will score the exam and submit results to the appropriate program Dean or Director.
6. Dean or Director will notify students of award or denial.
7. The Office of the Registrar will award credit as recommended by the Dean or Director.

Prior Learning Fees

The following lists all non-refundable prior learning assessment and Prior Learning Credit fees by category as define below. (Current fee amounts will be found on the prior learning fees list)

Students should be aware that financial aid does not cover the cost of requesting and obtaining credit through the PLC policy. All fees are an out-of-pocket expense to the student.

Category I (credit by examination)

- Transcription Fee (per course)

Category II A (credit by Professional Licensure/Certification)

- PLA Application Fee
- PLC per credit hour Fee
- Transcription Fee (per course)

Example:

Student John Doe, currently holds a valid CompTIA A+ certification (professional certification in computer repair). John applies for PLC for BRTC courses CIS1044 – PC Repair I and CIS2044 – PC Repair II with his professional certification. He would complete the application form and pay the application fee, once this is paid John would submit his application, payment receipt, and copies of his certification to the Dean of Business & Technical Education for review. After the review the Dean would notify the student, as well as, the Office of the Registrar, and the Finance Office of any awarded PLC. Once approved the Student would have to pay the total PLC per credit hour fee and course transcription fee for the credit awarded. Once paid the Registrar's office would award the credit to the student's file to be applied to their transcript during their final semester prior to graduation.

Category II B (credit by professional skills exam)

- PLA Application Fee
- PLC per credit hour Fee
- Transcription Fee (per course)

Example:

Student John Doe, has worked as a professional welder for multiple years and is now seeking to get a college degree in his field. John applies for PLC for welding courses based on his work experience/work skills. He would complete the application form then contact the Dean or Director for the area/program that he is seeking PLC in. During this meeting the Dean or Director would determine if there was an appropriate skills-based exam for the course(s) with input from the appropriate faculty member a exam date would be scheduled. John would then take the application to the finance department to pay his application fee. John would bring his application and payment receipt to the schedule exam test date to complete his exam. Once the exam was completed the faculty member will score/grade the exam and report the results to the Dean or Director, who would notify the student, as well as, the Office of the Registrar, and the Finance Office of any awarded PLC. Once approved the Student would have to pay the total PLC per credit hour fee and course transcription fee for the credit awarded. Once paid the Registrar's office would award the credit to the student's file to be applied to their transcript during their final semester prior to graduation.

PLA - application fee: the fee required for the processing of the Prior Learning Credit request form and supporting documentation. Fees do not guarantee the awarding of credit. Fees are non-refundable.

PLC - credit Hour fee: The fee required for each credit hour of Prior Learning Credit awarded. This fee is only assessed upon approval and must be paid before credit is awarded.

Transcription fee: The fee to process any Prior Learning Credit awarded onto the student's transcript.

Prior Learning Refund and Appeal Policy

Prior Learning fees cover administrative and assessment costs incurred by the college. Students are not paying fees to purchase college credit. Therefore, all fees are nonrefundable regardless of the outcome of the petition for credit.

Once a Prior Learning Application Form has been submitted to the college, and/or a student is notified of a credit award or denial, no refunds will be issued.

If a student is denied credit, the student can appeal the decision by following the steps below. During the appeal process, no new or additional information, documentation, or evidence of learning will be considered. The timeline and steps of the appeal process will be strictly enforced. Failure to abide by these steps will result in forfeiture of appeal.

Step 1

Students must complete and file a Prior Learning Appeal Form with appropriate documentation with the Office of Academics within 5 business days of receiving a denial notification. (Prior Learning Appeal Form can be found in the student handbook and on the college's website).

An appeal form will not be accepted unless Step 1 is completed within the designated timeframe.

Step 2

The PLA Appeal Committee will review the request for appeal and all previously submitted documentation to determine if there is sufficient evidence to reverse the original decision. The decision of the PLA Appeal Committee is final.

Step 3

The Vice President of Academics will notify the student of the PLA Appeal Committee's final decision.

- A) If the PLA Appeal Committee reverses the original decision, the Office of the Registrar will award the appropriate credit.
- B) If the PLA Appeal Committee upholds the original decision, the student may not petition for credit again for that course by any other options defined under PLA.

PLA Appeal Committee

Committee assembled to review student PLC appeal. Committee will be made up of 3 members composed of:

- Faculty member of a related field
- Program Dean or Director (not involved in initial assessment)
- Vice President of Academics

PLA Appeal Committee reserves the right to question all parties involved in the initial review process.

Categories I and II

Category I Credit (National Exams)

Category I includes nationally recognized exams commonly accepted among colleges. Also, in this category are military credit evaluation, courses taken as a high school student through articulation agreements with institutions and agencies. These evaluation services are offered at no cost to the student, however a minor transcription fee may apply. The following is a list of exams and evaluation services accepted by BRTC. For the most up-to-date list of individual exams and courses, along with the accepted scores for credit, please visit our website at www.blackrivertech.edu/

- College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
- Advanced Placement (AP) program
- American Council on Education (ACE)
- Memorandum of Understanding or Articulation Agreement with a public agency, high school, or other education institution.

Advanced Placement (AP) program:

To Receive AP Credit and No Grade

If a student took an AP course as part of their high school curricula but did not sign up for concurrent enrollment with a college, the student is only eligible for AP credit and does NOT receive a college grade. The student earns college-level credit when an appropriate score is earned on the AP exam and submitted to BRTC. A grade is not reported to BRTC at semester's end.

AP credit is not awarded for a course the student has already completed at the college/university level. AP credit granted at other institutions is not automatically transferable to Black River Technical College. Students who wish to transfer AP credit must submit official documentation of earned scores.

The table below lists AP exams and Courses that AP credit can be awarded.

Category II (A)

Category II (A) includes several opportunities for evaluation of certifications or licenses that are awarded at the national or state level.

BRTC will evaluate the results of these certifications and licenses to award credit for students interested in continuing their education to complete a degree. An official certification or license document must be submitted to appropriate program Dean or Director for review.

The evaluation of these certifications, licenses, and courses incurs a PLC Application Fee and if awarded, a PLC - credit hour fee and a transcription fee per course.

The following divisions have programs or individual courses that are available to have certification or licensing exams evaluated for credit. Non-transferable coursework from a regionally accredited school may be evaluated. However, coursework from a non-regionally accredited school will require additional assessment, whether from a certification or portfolio. For the most current list of programs offering Prior Learning Credit, please check BRTC's website.

Students are welcome to meet with the Office of Academics about opportunities that are not specifically listed.

Note: All licenses and certifications must be valid, not expired, and/or unencumbered. For software, certifications and/or licenses must be based on the specific one being taught at BRTC.

Important Note

For Automotive Collision Technology, in addition to the listed ASE certifications, a minimum of 2-years field experience will also be required. Students will not be fully awarded the Prior Learning Credit toward the 1-year Technical Certificate Auto Collision Technology – Cosmetic Repair Technology until they have completed the 1-year Technical Certificate Auto Collision Technology – Structural Repair Technology program.

Category II (B)

Category II (B) experiential learning may be evaluated for requested courses through the use of unique examinations geared toward the skills necessary to meet course learning outcomes. Students should follow the process for requesting prior learning to determine if examination opportunities are available.

Examples include but are not limited to the following:

- Electrical Apprenticeship program
- Welding experience
- Military training that does not fall under Category I
- Self-taught/life skills

The assessment of these necessary skills will incur the following:

- PLC - application Fee
- PLC - credit hour fee
- Transcription fee (per course)

Students are invited to meet with the Office of Academics about opportunities not specifically listed.

I understand I must submit this completed request, pay any necessary fees, and provide official records of results in order to petition for credit. Paying a fee is not purchasing credit. I understand I am not guaranteed credit and that my request will be evaluated by an expert in the petitioned field of study. Therefore, I understand refunds are not issued once fees are paid. I understand that any credit hours awarded do not count toward the college's residency requirement nor will I be able to receive credit twice for a course awarded by PLC. If denied credit, I understand I cannot petition for credit again by any option defined under the college's PLC policy. I understand that BRTC cannot guarantee the transfer of any credit awarded under PLC to another college or university.
